

EMORY
UNIVERSITY

Office for Clinical Research Research Administration

Dear Clinical Research Professional,

Congratulations on your new clinical research position at Emory!

We are delighted that you have decided to join Emory University, one of the nation's leading research universities. Emory focuses on the number of lives saved, partnerships forged, and discoveries driven— across the globe. View our research impact.

In the Office for Clinical Research (OCR), our mission is to build strong relationships that make a difference by collaborating across boundaries to meet the needs of our customers through service excellence and empowering our research community to conduct high-quality research, thereby providing life-changing research opportunities for our patients and research participants.

The Education and Quality Improvement team in OCR provides several resources necessary to help you transition smoothly into your new role and ensure you have the tools you need to succeed in your new journey at Emory.

See the attached document. Utilize this document to help with your onboarding process. Orientation and onboarding vary from department to department but allow yourself time to learn and experience this wonderful field of clinical research while transforming research ... together!

We look forward to your success at Emory!
